

Yankees Shut Out Giants For Second Time

New York, Oct. 6.—(By The A. P.)—The New York Yankees made world's series history here today, shutting out the Giants 3 to 0 in the second game of the struggle, leaving the New York Yankees with a 2-0 lead in the series. They did it by heavy work on the bases and the best possible use of their few hits, supported throughout by the best pitching of Walter Hoyt, their young star pitcher. He threw a complete game, allowing the Giants but two puny singles.

Thanks to the opening, today's game was played before a crowd that taxed the capacity of the Polo Grounds and led to loud and frequent interruptions of the game. It was a contest to endure over for the contest with a pitcher's battle between Hoyt and Art Nehf, who pitched stellar ball for the Giants, was repeated with rattle and boom.

Hoyt's Splendid Pitching. Possibly the thing that most encouraged the players of the Yankees, looking forward to the ultimate outcome of the series, was the splendid game pitched by Hoyt, who led the Giants to one hit up to the ninth and only allowed two runs in the following the series. Hoyt's pitching was a masterpiece, with two straight shutouts of the Giants.

So straight was Hoyt's pitching that the Giants never had more than four hits in the game in any one inning. Hoyt's pitching was a masterpiece, with two straight shutouts of the Giants.

Ruth's New Role. The game revealed "Babe" Ruth in a new role, that of the popular base-stealer. He stole home in the eighth inning, but was caught by the Giants' catcher, who was in a position to catch him. Ruth's new role was a surprise to many.

How Yankees Scored. The Yankees scored their first run in the fourth inning. They scored again in the fifth and sixth innings.

ed in issuing three passes to the big fellow. Ruth scored a run, however, setting on the bases once through a fielder's choice and finally tallying.

Ruth's base stealing feat was performed late in the inning and didn't result in a run. Not so, however, the surprise sprung by the next most justly contributed slugger, the lanky "Bolt" Meusel. This left fielder did a clean steal of home in the eighth-inning, McNeely's feat of Wednesday. He didn't have to slide for it either, for the pitcher was on the mound and Earl Smith, the starting catcher, let it get away from him for a passed ball.

Frisc's Remarkable Pitching. The Giants' pitchers got their chance today to cheer the playing of the remarkable Frank Frisc.

For one thing he made a great catch of a sliding liner by Meusel, labeled for two bases with two on, in the Yankees' first inning, turning the smash into a double play. Then, in the third, he brought the crowd to its feet with his brilliant performance in grabbing a difficult grounder from McNeely, throwing himself at the ball, and then, while flat on the ground, reaching up and tagging Walter Phipp, who was tearing for third.

Much Excitement in Third. Much of the excitement of the game was crowded into the Yankees' third inning. Schanz started by sending a high fly to Banerjee. Rawlings squirmed and twisted to get under Hoyt's Texas leaguer, but was unable to hold the ball. Meusel, who had been walking, and the crowd yelled to Ruth to "hit 'er out" as the Duke came to bat. Coach Leary, of the Yankees, ran out from the dugout and drew umpire Moriarty's attention to the ball. The umpire examined it and threw it out of the game. Pitched Nehf took no chances with the home run hitter and passed him to first, filling the bases. This brought up Bob Meusel, another hard hitter, but the best he could do was to send up a short fly to Banerjee, leaving the three base runners stranded.

were safe. Wally Schanz drew a pass, dilling the corner. Ward tallied the first run as Hoyt went out on a grounder. Rawlings to Kelly. McNeely tried to score as the play was being made at first and was nipped at the plate by Kelly's good throw to Smith.

Nothing further happened in the scoring line until the eighth when the Yankees added two. Frisch muffed Peckinpah's easy fly back of second base. Ruth smashed a grounder to Kelly who threw out Peck at second. Bancroft taking the throw, Ruth sprinted to third on Bob Meusel's single to center and came home as Phipp was going out on a grounder. Rawlings to Kelly. Meusel took third on the play. Then the unexpected again happened. Meusel's steal home amid cheers that shook the grandstand. Ward ended the inning by fouling out to Kelly.

Gate Receipts Record. In addition to establishing a new world's series record of two consecutive shutouts by the same team in the first two games, the gate receipts record established yesterday also won. The $4,229 spectators who witnessed the Yankees' second victory paid $115,220. This was more than six times the gate receipts in the second game of the 1925 series which was played at the Polo Grounds under the National Commission rules.

By a strange coincidence the Giants lost that game to the Philadelphia Athletics on the same field and by the same score as that of today's contest. Of the $115,220 paid today the players will receive $58,132.20; the clubs $28,088.80, and the advisory board $17,239.

The consensus of opinion among local sport writers is that the batteries tomorrow will be Shawkey and Schanz for the Yankees and Toney and Snyder for the Giants.

"Great pitching, great fielding and daring base running gave us the victory," said Manager Huggins tonight. "My men played the game kind of a shambles game they did on Wednesday and the Giants were unable to reach the plate."

"As for tomorrow's game, I will pitch either Bob Shawkey or Harry Harper. Both are ready and anxious for a crack at the Giants."

"They're not hitting," said Manager McGraw of the Giants, "and they are not playing the kind of ball that wins games. There also have been several close decisions given against the Giants. I thought Burns was safe on his steal in the eighth inning."

"We are not discouraged over our two defeats. It will make us fight all the harder for tomorrow's game. I am going to pitch Toney tomorrow."

FOREIGN PLAYERS ELIMINATED FROM GOLF TOURNAMENT

Des Moines, N. J., Oct. 6.—(By The A. P.)—Today's matches in the national women's golf tournament decided that the title would remain at home, the last two of seven foreign players who started in the competition Monday being eliminated.

Miss Alexia Stirling of Atlanta, the defending champion, defeated Mrs. Latham Hall, an American citizen by marriage, by a score of 11 to 10 in the first round. The score was one up, the champion taking the match at the home green, as the result of a remarkable chip from the rough that carried thirty yards to the hole.

Belgian player, Miss Edith Leitch, sister of the defeated Irish champion, Miss Cecil Leitch, lost to the nineteenth hole to Miss Edith Leitch, who today eliminated Miss Sara Foreman of Chicago. An uphill battle when victory seemed doubtful and better putting in the pinch featured the winner's play.

Miss Marion Hollins of New York defeated Mrs. M. C. Lewis, a British player, by a score of 11 to 10 in the first round. Mrs. Lewis gave her best yesterday in eliminating the player who had been abroad, and was unusually today.

The fourth survivor in the tournament is Mrs. C. H. Vandenberg of Philadelphia, who today eliminated Miss Sara Foreman of Chicago. An uphill battle when victory seemed doubtful and better putting in the pinch featured the winner's play.

In the semi-final tomorrow Miss Stirling will renew her annual battle with Mrs. Vandenberg, while Miss Hollins will play Mrs. Leitch, who has never met before.

Mrs. Vandenberg has been at least as far as the semi-finals in the four national women's titles and she has participated. She defeated Miss Stirling in a 22-hole contest in 1915 and won the title. This was Miss Stirling's first national competition. Mrs. Vandenberg did not participate in the 1916 event, in which Miss Stirling won the championship for the first time. In 1919 Miss Stirling defeated Mrs. Vandenberg at the home green in the semi-final and last year the champion was again victorious in their semi-final meeting, the score being two and one.

Miss Roseenthal has held the western women's title and Miss Hollins has been an important factor in recent national tournaments, being finalist last year.

The gallery today for the most part followed the match between Mrs. Hall and Miss Stirling and was rewarded by a thrilling climax at the home green. One down at the turn and never in the lead during the first nine holes, Miss Stirling squared the match at the eighteenth hole. Mrs. Hall, with the shorter drive, made the green with her second shot. Miss Stirling overdrove the ball bounding from the green into rough grass. It seemed certain that the match would be square and go to extra holes.

The champion's remarkable chip, however, left her an easy put for a par four while Mrs. Hall failed to sink an eighteen foot putt that was needed to win the hole. The half meant victory for Miss Stirling.

Meanwhile Miss Edith Leitch and Miss Roseenthal were finishing their match, in which the nervous tension was so great that each of them failed at critical times, but Miss Roseenthal proved to have the greater stamina in the end.

The needed only a half at the home green for victory. She missed a 190 foot putt for the half, after Miss Leitch missed an eight-footer and the latter won the hole, prolonging the match. At the extra hole, it was only Miss Leitch who missed at the critical putt. Miss Roseenthal sank one of a yard for victory.

BALTIMORE EVENED UP SERIES WITH LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., Oct. 6.—(With Jack Ogden, premier hurler of the International league, pitching a masterly game, Baltimore evened up the series with Louisville, champion of the American Association, in the second game of the junior world's series today, 2 to 1.

Ogden was opposed by Ben Tincup, the Indian pitcher, who went through the American Association without a defeat.

Louisville scored its first run in the seventh inning. Ballenger had rolled to Boley, Schepner slashed a single to left and Meyer followed with a single to right. Tincup struck out and Boley in attempting to field Acosta's grounder threw wild to second, allowing Schepner to score.

Tincup held Baltimore hitless until the fourth when Jacobson was passed. Holden singled to right and Bentley doubled to right field, scoring Jacobson.

Baltimore counted again in the eighth after two were out. Lawry reached first of Herzog's error and raced home when Jacobson tripled to the left field bleachers.

The teams will be idle tomorrow, the third and fourth games of the series will be played Saturday and Sunday. The score:
